

Concert Critical Listening Essay

Name:

Listen to the recording and in the space below, write a review of your ensemble’s performance, using real musical terminology and specific instances. You will need to demonstrate your understanding by defining terms, analyzing what you hear and evaluating the performance in general according to your written justification.

Lined writing area for the main essay response.

Was there a performance by another group that you especially enjoyed? Tell why.

Lined writing area for the second question response.